- F. Holiday Gift Shop Update - Amber Page

To be held next week, December 11-15. Preview Day will be Monday. Teachers were given a sign up sheet for times to come to the preview. Students will receive a letter and wish list to take home, Parents help kids know who is on their list and how much they can spend. Kids bring wish list to fill out during preview. Volunteers still needed. Text Amber to find out when your kids' classes will be shopping so you can come with them. Only cash will be accepted. Money needs to be counted and deposited each night. Classes will shop during their library time Tuesday-Thursday, Market will be open to everyone on Friday. Teachers to identify any students who may need assistance in buying things so everyone can participate. Teachers concerned about there being enough adults to help, especially in the younger grades.

J. Principal's Message -Adam Baker

Stem Days: Chemistry teacher from the high school came and did an assembly on physical and chemical change. She did fun science experiments with the kids. It was National Coding Week so Tyler McGinnis came and did an assembly on coding. It was so fun, It was crazy but with a lot of engagement which the kids loves. Stem shirts turned out cute. Teachers all wear them on the same day. The entire school does the same lesson simultaneously
